

Formal Highway Response

The Highway Authority has no adverse comment on this application. The conversion of the garage will lead to the loss of one parking space but it will not result in a highway safety reason for refusal. I will leave it up to the Planning Authority to decide if there is an amenity problem because of the loss of this space.