

There are a number of automotive workshops in the immediate area and therefore this would add to them. However this is a similar case to the number of automotive units in the Tanneries working in close proximity. Therefore I do not see it as a major issue.

I have no objections to this application from an economic growth perspective.

Regards,

Ganesh Selvarajah

Havant Borough Council