

Employment and Skills Plan

|                         |                                  |
|-------------------------|----------------------------------|
| Site                    | One Eight Zero                   |
| Developer               | David Wilson Southampton         |
| Author                  | Barratt David Wilson Southampton |
| Reference               |                                  |
| Planned start date:     |                                  |
| Planned Completion date |                                  |

This document forms the Developer's response to Schedule One, Section 9 of the Section 106 agreement between Barratt David Wilson Southampton and Havant Borough Council

| Introduction    |                                                                                                                                                                                       |
|-----------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Objectives      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Jobs for local people</li> <li>• Promoting Apprenticeships</li> <li>• Developing the skills of the workforce</li> </ul> |
| Contact details | anthony.dimnick@barratthomes.co.uk                                                                                            |
| The Development | One Eight Zero                                                                                                                                                                        |

The Section 106 Agreement (Town and Country Planning Act) linked to this development requires the Developer to develop and deliver an Employment and Skills Plan (ESP) with the planning authority (Havant Borough Council).