For the Attention of Mrs H Lealan

2nd October 2014

Dear Sirs,

Re: New Housing to the rear of Hawthorne Grove, Hayling Island. PO11 9DW.
Reserved Matters consent: APP/14/00488

Further to receiving the above appeal decision, please find enclosed the following information in order to discharge the associated planning conditions:

Condition 3

The 2.4m fencing is being erected at the moment and will be available for inspection and sign off next Wednesday 8th October.

Condition 4

Please find attached detailed material palettes showing all combinations of our materials along with our materials and finishing schedule for the whole of the development which indicates which finish is to be applied to all of our plots for approval.

I also attach to this letter details required for approval by the council under the terms of our S106 agreement for the development which is details of our management company and our Employment and Skills plan, which I believe are the only outstanding matters.

Continued

In addition to the above I have enclosed 4no copies of the completed application form along with a cheque in the sum of £97 in relation to planning fees. I trust you will find the enclosures acceptable to discharge the above conditions. Should you have any queries or require any further information please contact the undersigned.

Yours faithfully
