Hi Pip - previously you had no adverse comments - these revised plans group the cabinets together more. I will assume you still have no adverse comment unless you let me know by end of tomorrow, 23rd April, as this needs to be determined by 24th.

Thanks, Tina

Dear Mrs Pickup,

Further to my telephone message, firstly please accept our apologies for not returning your calls sooner, I have just returned from my vacation and been informed of your messages regarding the siting of the proposed cabinets at the above site location. Moreover, as you may be aware, our colleague Mr Phil Martin no longer works on behalf of CAIP and therefore, your messages were not picked up until recently.

In response to your enquiry, I have attached a set of plans showing the revised cabinet positions. As you will note, these are now set in closer proximity to each other. It would appear the amendments were produced back in early part of April, but unfortunately not forwarded to you until today.

Regards
