Dear TVAS/'Planning Development',

Following discussion with TVAS and submission of photographs of the archaeological work I am happy to confirm that no further archaeological fieldwork is required in the southern part of the site. Archaeological mitigation excavation still needs to be undertaken in the northern area of the site as agreed in the Written Scheme of Investigation for archaeological mitigation.

Should you have any queries please do not hesitate to contact me.

Yours Sincerely,

Dr Hannah Fluck

Hi Hannah,

Attached is a pdf of the plan for area b and some of the photographs of the excavated features and overall site shots. The remaining photos follow in the subsequent emails.

Regards

Steve
