

Comments on Application & Plans for Richard Nash

There has been a very comprehensive AIA & MS report submitted with this application and provided that it is tied in to a Planning Condition seeking compliance with same then I foresee no threat to retained trees.

A hedge across the frontage will be removed along with sundry saplings through the site but these are not high quality or significant features.

Bernie Harverson

Consultant Arboriculturist

24.11.14