

Impact of development on trees

The closest tree to the property is over 30metres away.

The trees on site will be protected continuously throughout the works taking place on site.

No building materials will be stored in the root protection area.

