Town and Country Planning Act 1990: Section 191 and 192 (as amended by Section 10 of the Planning and Compensation Act 1991)
Town and Country Planning (General Development Procedure) Order 1995
Article 24
REFUSAL TO GRANT CERTIFICATE OF LAWFUL USE OR DEVELOPMENT

Havant Borough Council, as Local Planning Authority, REFUSES to certify that on the date of the application (24 September 2014) the development described in the First Schedule to this certificate in respect of land described in the Second Schedule and red on the location plan (Ordnance Survey 0100031673) submitted in connection with the application was lawful within the meaning of section 191 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 (as amended) for the following reason:

Based on the information supplied by the applicant and having regard to the Council's own evidence, the applicant has failed to prove that, on the balance of probability, the land south of Mandai, St Peters Road, Hayling Island, PO11 0RT, has been continuously occupied as a leisure plot for a period of 10 years or more. In addition the applicant has failed to prove that the operational development associated with the leisure use has been on site for a period of four years or more.

The conflicting evidence casts significant doubt on the validity of the documents provided by the Applicant and as such a Certificate of Lawfulness cannot be issued.

Yours faithfully

Julia Potter
Executive Head - Economy and Planning

21 January 2015
