Planning Statement.

The Co-operative Funeralcare are a secure, ethically founded community conscious company, seeking to improve the economic success and employment opportunities of the locale.

As part of a national rebranding scheme - all business premises are to follow strict brand guidelines to which these proposals adhere.

Further to that, after surveying the surrounding area, materials and specifications have been chosen so as not to harm the visual and environmental impact of the area. A trough light system and a projecting sign has been selected based on neighbouring properties having similar.
