7 Planning Considerations

- 7.1 Having regard to the relevant policies of the development plan it is considered that the main issues arising from this application are:

My inspection related specifically to assessing the proposed works rather than generally inspecting the tree's health and condition in any great detail. I visually inspected the tree from ground level and the following The tree subject to this application is a mature Field maple offering limited public amenity value to the streetscene due to its position in the garden. The works applied for are considered to be reasonable routine management and should not detriment the health of the tree or impact negatively on its amenity value in the area.

8 Conclusion

Recommend permission.
