Dear Rick

We advertise on all the attached web sites and the property has appeared on the appropriate web sites shown.

However, the property will appear in Rightmove under Tully's Estate Agents who have also been offering it.

The photo was taken by Luke Mort from my office on the 26th March 2013. We do not have a dated photo but the jpeg is attached. I can confirm the sticker has remained displayed since the photograph was taken.

We have not done paper adverts, but we find web sites have over taken the old paper adverts.

I trust this adequately confirms our marketing efforts to attract a suitable tenant.
