

to the windows, will not damage the architectural and historic interest of the building: as the proposed works are mostly internal and hidden from general view: there will not be any adverse impact on the Conservation Area.

2 The proposed changes in internal layout will provide a more sensible and usable living space

JG rev: 1 24 04 13