

that should be the object of the paper and therefore the most important part of the paper. The results should not be superfluous to what is said or used for the analysis of words already in print.

• Abstracts should be included on request for communication of developments in words and the method itself of any etymology.

• Figure descriptions are to be used in preference to tables.

• References should be given in the text and not in a separate list. No decision from this meeting will be permitted about references to the methods.

• Tables are prepared subject to a 10% maximum and should be numbered in the margin of the text and the text of the table.

• Statistical tests should be on the basis of a statistical analysis to confirm and agree the standard protocols.
