Hi Richard

Demolition of the existing 2 bed bungalow, Construction of replacement 2 bed bungalow and external decking area to the rear.

There will be no contribution as the new and existing contain the same number of dwellings and the same number of dwellings therefore no addition trips.

The red line is incorrectly drawn, although it is shown to the highway you are unable to access the building without access to a third party land this path needs to be indicated on the plan.

The will need to provide 1 cycle storage space,

Tracey Ford
