Richard in cases like this I have asked the developer if he would agree to a 106 that asked for £5,000 to paid to be made available for a TRO if we deem it necessary within a three year period from the date of implementation of the Agreement. If the developer agree then that it will all well and good but if the don't agree I don't think It I could recommend refusal as they are providing parking

Hello Pip

We haven't consulted you formally on this application for an ATM, but I would be grateful for any comments you might have in the light of the attached representation.

Thanks
