Stephen

I did visit the site with Lucy and Sarah.

From an economic development viewpoint the site has clearly had no economic activity for a very long time and is an eyesore.

Existing marina provision on Hayling appears to be adequate and Northney marina has many empty units.

I think the housing density issue is outside of my scope.

Therefore I would agree with the original ED comments that we have no objection.

David / Jeff

Has Economic Development been consulted on this site?

There would appear to be a loss of a boatyard which I don't think is currently in use. There is also some B1c and D2 proposed.

Thanks

Lucy
