5th November 2012

Planning Application APP/12/00966 Land North of Goldring Close and My Lords Lane, East of St Margaret Road and South of Beech Grove and Hawthorne Grove Hayling Island – consultation responses online

As of 5th November 2012 the Planning Service has received over 600 consultation responses for this application.

The majority of responses have been made as a standard letter of objection and over 300 of these letters are available to view online. In order to better manage the amount of documentation attached to this application, please note that the remaining standard letters and any other standard letters received by the Planning Service will not be published online UNLESS any further comments are added to the standard letter. In this case the redacted letter with additional comments will be published on the website.

All consultation response letters will be recorded on our planning applications system as part of the application regardless of whether they are published on line or not. The planning case officer will read through ALL responses received as part of their the assessment of the application.
