

6. Flood Risk Assessment.

It is believed that the conversion of 10 South Street from a Solicitors office to a 1 bedroom apartment will not change the flood risk.

The external footprint of the building is the same as before, surface runoff from rainfall will be the same as previously. As such no quantitative flood risk measurements have been undertaken.