

Hi Jennie,

The tiles have not been chosen as such but we would be looking at a grey tile similar to the attached but are happy to take your preference - or potentially a grey slate if we don't use concrete.

My favoured are probably the grey Calderdale for the main roof with the Redlands or similar for the dormers.

I would expect them to be matching or similar for the tile hanging of the dormers and gables.

