Description of Proposed Works

Please describe the proposed works

The proposed works involve the construction of a single-storey front porch with the following features:

Projection from front elevation : 1.8 metres

Projection from existing front door : 2.7 metres

Width: To match the existing front door width with symmetrical glazing either side : 2.7meters

Height: Approximately 2.8 metres to ridge (pitched gable roof)

Construction: Insulated cavity wall with matching external finish to existing dwelling (render or brick to complement façade)

Roof: Pitched tiled roof with a small gable over the porch entrance, matching existing roof tiles

Windows and Door: Anthracite grey composite door with rectangular double-glazed side panels and transom above

Foundations: To meet Building Regulations standards

The porch is designed to be visually in keeping with the character of the existing dwelling and surrounding properties, using sympathetic materials and modest scale.

Biodiversity net gain

Paragraph 13 of Schedule 7A of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 sets out that every planning permission granted for the development of land in England shall be deemed to have been granted subject to the 'biodiversity gain condition' requiring development to achieve a net gain of 10% of biodiversity value.

This is subject to exemptions, an exemption applies in relation to planning permission for a development which is the subject of a householder application, within the meaning of article 2(1) of the Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order (2015)*.

Applicants for planning permission are required to make a statement as to whether they believe the biodiversity gain condition will apply if permission is granted, please confirm:

☒ It is my belief that if permission is granted for the development to which this application relates the biodiversity gain condition would not apply

*A 'householder application' means an application for planning permission for development for an existing dwellinghouse, or development within the curtilage of such a dwellinghouse for any purpose incidental to the enjoyment of the dwellinghouse which is not an application for change of use or an application to change the number of dwellings in a building.

Pre-application Advice

Has assistance or prior advice been sought from the local authority about this application?

☐ Yes

☒ No

Authority Employee/Member

With respect to the Authority, is the applicant and/or agent one of the following:

(a) a member of staff

(b) an elected member

(c) related to a member of staff

(d) related to an elected member

It is an important principle of decision-making that the process is open and transparent.

For the purposes of this question, "related to" means related, by birth or otherwise, closely enough that a fair-minded and informed observer, having considered the facts, would conclude that there was bias on the part of the decision-maker in the Local Planning Authority.

Do any of the above statements apply?

☐ Yes

☒ No
