

This building could potentially be built in timber frame or SIP utilising the existing building as the ground floor and creating around 400m2 of additional indoor space and 250m2 of outdoor balcony space. Which could then be used by the council or as a potential commercial premises

