

Additional Information relating to Trees

The trees are a good distance away from the proposed extension, the structure would be reasonably lightweight, and that the foundations do not need to be deep as it would be on chalk (the next best to rock) and could even be a raft with shallow side foundations.

Photographs of neighbouring trees

