YOUR COMMENTS ON THE CASE

I was dismayed when permission was granted for the original application by Bargate. Access to Lodge Road is already being impacted by the increase in traffic. The bends in Lower Road are far too narrow, the verges are being used and wrecked on a daily basis and a further possible 50 cars plus, can only cause further damage. Walking to Bidbury Mead and St. Thomas's church, actually in the the road, as there is no footpath, has become increasingly dangerous.

I cannot express my opposition to this further development enough.
