

With reference to the proposed development in Lower road

Bargate homes New Planning Application ref (APP/20/01031)

There is very little more I can say as my views remain the same in as much as this project will detract from the charm of the area and traffic will be congested, especially cars tuning into the estate coming from the small roundabout which is always backed up, so cars waiting to turn into the estate would be even worse

