Why you think permission should or should not be given

When I read the notice attached to lamppost in Fulflood Road (why were people in Little Hackets & Billys Copse lettered about this?) when I got to the word "paint" I thought OMG, that can only mean strong smells of paint. They will probably claim to have filters to stop this, but we all know from Budds Farm that filters are not much cop. As the prevailing wind is usually from the SW, this means the smell will drift onto the Barratts estate. I wish to appeal against proposal in the strongest terms. This firm should be on an industrial estate away from housing.
