

Dear Sirs,

[REDACTED] These tree are twice the height of any other trees in the vicinity, they sway frighteningly in high winds and branches snap off and fly everywhere, often into our garden. Whenever there is a high wind we are terrified of the possibility of these trees being uprooted and falling in our garden as they would easily reach our bungalow and cause damage.

[REDACTED]
C fu
o
T th

We fully support this application.

[REDACTED]