Dear sirs

We are writing to explain our intentions at 1 stakes road Purbrook.

As there have had a tyre shop in battmans yard London road Purbrook since 1972, we would like to still trade in the vicinity as all our customers rely on a friendly local business that supports the local community in Purbrook. we have many discussions we councilors about the local businesses in and around Purbrook.

We would be still supplying the community of tyres on a booking in service like as before

The property we requesting has in the past been a car breaking shop(universal car spares) Also a motorbike repair and service shop ,until recently a wedding business went in and did not last very long .

The joining neighbour owns and vacates in the property next door , with no objections. This end of stakes road, london road has always been retail-comercial and has sig roofing a yard with businesses and masonic hall in surrounding area .thus this end of the road has been businesses.

Many thanks
