[REDACTED] the tree in question has been a problem for many years i.e. blocking daylight, needles and berries causing problems with garden growth. We did try ourselves to apply to have these branches removed but as we are not direct neighbours we were told it wasn't feasible for us to apply for this. And the landlord of 44 East Street, at the time, didn't want to get involved as this was a tenanted property and therefore didn't directly affect the landlord.
