Confirmation that application permitted in 1982 to change use of unit from a retail shop to a shop to sell wet and fried fish, with a condition for a odour neutraliser plant to be installed. She said that no condition was added to state that use be purely for fish & chips & that ∴ she was of the opinion that planning permission for addition of a Chinese take away was not required. However later suggested that a Lawful Development Certificate Application be applied for to confirm above change.

Please state the applicant's interest in the land?
