Hi Kayleigh,

Yes, I think we can probably call this de minimis.

If you have any queries, please don't hesitate to contact me.

Kind regards,

Tristan

Hi Tristan,

Just writing up this one, its for a large storage unit (18sqm) and a ramp (approx. 15sqm). We don't have any BNG details but I think this is de minimis as there is a membrane on the ground where the shed would be sited both areas where the shed and ramp would be sited is clear of any soft landscaping, photos below. On google earth I can that membrane was there in 2022. Are you ok

Kind regards,

Kayleigh Taylor MRTPI
