Stance: Customer made comments in support of the Planning Application

Comment Reasons:

Comment: I would like to object about the building even with some new plans it is still very close to the back of my house and will make it feel very enclosed and people will be out to look into my back garden bedroom windows [REDACTED] and this is the third time I have been through this stress and worry. I believe the fact that my house is so close to the development they could not build that high because it would be very intrusive.
