To Whom It May Concern

Anchor Points in the Kench, Hayling Island

I own, and have used regularly for more than a decade, the property at  which overlooks the inlet which includes the houseboat berth being purchased by  I have also been a committee member of the landlord, the Hayling Health Society Limited, for the last nine years and so am closely involved with developments on our site. I am currently its Chairman.

At their request, I am happy to confirm that no new anchor points have been created in the last ten years.

Yours faithfully
