Re: Variation of condition 3 of Planning Permission 97/62730 to extend occupancy of holiday park from 10 months to 11 months 14 days allowing the park to be used between 1st March and 14th February inclusive.

I am writing to advise you that for the following reason the Council is unable to determine your application by the previous date agreed and I am writing to request agreement to the period of determination being extended under Article 34 of the Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order 2015.

Reason:

To re-consult the Environment Agency on the Flood Risk Assessments and on receipt of their responses to determine the applications.

To extend the period please return, signed and dated, the slip below or alternatively please confirm by email within the next 5 working days. If you wish to discuss this request further, please contact me.

Yours sincerely

Ms L Wells
Principal Planner
