Community Infrastructure Levy (CIL) - Form 7: Self Build Exemption Claim Form Part 2

An exemption for a self build home must be granted prior to the commencement of the development AND a Commencement of development notice. Notice must be received by the Charging/Collecting Authority prior to the date of commencement of the development. The applicant will otherwise be liable for the full levy charge.

Part 2 of this form must be submitted to the Charging/Collecting Authority within six months of the completion of the development. The applicant will otherwise be liable for the full levy charge.

Please complete the form using block capitals and black ink and send to the Charging Authority or Collecting Authority at this address: the Charging Authority.

See Planning Practice Guidance for CIL for guidance on CIL generally, including 'relief from the Levy'.

Description:

Section B: Self Build Declaration

I declare that this is a 'self build project' for purposes of the exemption set out within the regulations ☒

I declare that I will occupy the premises as my sole or main residence for a period of 3 years from completion of the property ☒

I declare that I will provide the required supporting documentation as set out in 'Self Build Exemption Claim Form Part 2' within 6 months of completion of the property and I understand failure to do this will result in CIL becoming payable ☒

I declare the amount of de minimis State aid received in the last three years prior to submission of this application for relief is less than 200,000 Euro ☒

'Self Build' for the purposes of CIL exemption is defined as all homes built or commissioned by individuals or groups of individuals for the use, either by building the home on their own or working with builders.

'Completion' for the purposes of CIL exemption is defined as the issuing of a compliance certificate for this development issued under all regulation 17 (completion certificates) of the Building Regulations 2010 or section 51 of the Building Act 1984 (final certificates).

Information about de minimis State Aid for the purposes of CIL exemption can be found here:

It is an offence for a person to provide information which is false or misleading in a material respect to a collecting authority in response to a requirement under the Community Infrastructure Levy Regulations (2010) as amended (reg 110, SI 2010/948). A person guilty of an offence under this regulation may face unlimited fines, two years imprisonment, or both.

On receipt of this application the collecting authority will make a decision on your claim as soon as practicable and inform the applicant in writing. You must then submit a commencement notice to the collecting authority prior to starting on site. Failure to do so will result in the CIL charge becoming payable in full.
