Hello Kayleigh

The AMS and TPP (including facilitation work – and to remove some low quality trees) appears to be sound and if followed should meet the criteria to discharge the outstanding arboricultural condition

I would strongly suggest that following the setting out and erection of the Heras fencing that the Agent's Arb Consultant visits the site and then formally informs you that the TPP has been fully adhered to and is in line with BS:3837.

Best wishes

Morning all,

I appreciate that Kayleigh has already reached out for your comments on the above application, and I wanted to follow up to emphasise the urgency of this matter.

For context, approval of these applications is critical to enabling the submission of a Natural England licence. It would be greatly appreciated if you could provide your comments as soon as possible.

Please don't hesitate to get in touch with any queries.

Best wishes,

JM
