Hi Chloe,

I wanted to change the description for this one to 'Internal Renovations and Reconfigurations, alterations to fenestrations including ground floor floating front dormer , and loft conversion including rear dormer and first floor side extension'

I note the side extension could be described also as a dormer but I think extension covers it better as it's not got the appearance of a traditional dormer if that makes sense.

If you could let me know if you agree and I'll get this updated now.

Many thanks,

Selina Donophy
