

Wish to object to the above application as it is difficult enough to cycle through the car park at the moment, without additional developments.

And the whole point of a "pop up" cafe is that it is not there all the time. A semi-permanent building will intrude upon the beauty of the harbour 24/7.