

The provided description includes reference to the conversion of an integrated garage to create a separate annex for aging parents.

Please confirm whether these works are included within your proposal.

No, this is not included within this proposal. It was stated as something to be considered regarding storage on site and the facility to put cars in the garage. Whilst this is a feasible option currently it may not be in future if the garage is to be converted into additional living space