

There are No on-site trees or trees within falling distance of the proposed development (off site). There were some conifers that were recently removed but prior to this application.