Good morning Robert

The roof light is over the stairwell, so it is far in excess of 1.7m. around 5m and yes, it is a standard velux that will not extend past the face of the roof tile by more than 150mm.

Many thanks

June

Good morning June

I will be uploading the report tomorrow to the sign off list to be reviewed by a principal planner, please can you confirm the height of the new rooflight, can you confirm it is at permitted development level (15cm) or less?

Kind regards
