

PARAGRAPH 75(2) OF THE COMMUNICATIONS ACT 2003

1. This is a statutory notice pursuant to paragraph 75(2) of the Communications Act 2003 (the "Code").
2. We, British Telecommunications PLC, have installed
Estimate & Class of work:
Supplier Ref: _____ Eng ID: _____
Date of Installation: _____ day _____ month _____ year for the purposes of our network (the "Apparatus"). We are required to provide this notice because the Apparatus is at a height of three or more metres above the ground.

RIGHT TO OBJECT

3. You will have a right to object to the Apparatus under paragraph 77 of the Code if:
 - a. you are an occupier of, or have an interest in, any land neighbouring the land on or over which the Apparatus is kept; AND
 - b. because of the nearness of that neighbouring land to the land on or over which the Apparatus is kept:
 - i. the enjoyment of that neighbouring land is capable of being prejudiced by the Apparatus; or
 - ii. any interest in that land is capable of being prejudiced by the Apparatus.
4. You will not however have a right to object, even if the criteria referred to at paragraph 3 are satisfied, if the Apparatus:
 - a. replaces any electronic communications apparatus which is not substantially different from the Apparatus; and
 - b. is not in a significantly different position.
5. If you have a right to object to the Apparatus, you may exercise that right by giving us notice of your objection under paragraph 78 of the Code. Any such notice should be provided by email or by post to the address below, or by following the online instructions www.bt.com/objection or by following the instructions on the Apparatus.
