Thank you for consulting Sport England on the above application.

Non-statutory planning advice

The proposed development does not fall within our statutory remit (Statutory Instrument 2015/595 provided a detailed response in this case, but would wish to give the following advice to aid the as

General planning guidance and advice can be found on our website:

- https://www.sportengland.org/how-we-can-help/facilities-and-planning/planning-for-sport#p

Loss of sports facilities

If the proposal involves the loss of any sports facility, then full consideration should be given to wh of the National Planning Policy Framework (NPPF), is in accordance with local plan policies to pro whether it meets any approved Playing Pitch Strategy or Built Sports Facility Strategy that the loca

New sports facilities

If the proposal involves the provision of a new sports facility, then consideration should be given to out in any approved Playing Pitch Strategy or Built Sports Facility Strategy that the local authority they are fit for purpose, such facilities should be designed in accordance with design guidance not relevant sport National Governing Body.

- Design Guidance notes: http://sportengland.org/facilities-planning/tools-guidance/design-an

Meeting the needs of new housing

If the proposal involves the provision of additional housing, then it will generate additional deman not have the capacity to absorb the additional demand, then new and/or improved sports facilities accordance with any approved local policy for social infrastructure, and priorities set out in any Pla Facility Strategy that the local authority has in place. Our Sports Facility Calculator is a tool that ca demand for key community sports facilities from a new population and convert that demand into sp costs. Guidance on how to use the tool is available on the link below.

- Sports Facility Calculator: https://www.activeplacespower.com/

Other relevant guidance, tools and contacts

Active Design

In line with the Government's NPPF (including Section 8) and PPG (Health and wellbeing section) how new development, especially new housing, will provide opportunities for people to lead health communities. Sport England's Active Design guidance can be used to help with this when develop Design provides ten principles to help ensure the design and layout of development encourages a physical activity.

NPPF Section 8: https://www.gov.uk/guidance/national-planning-policy-framework/8-promoting-he

PPG Health and wellbeing section: https://www.gov.uk/guidance/health-and-wellbeing

Sport England's Active Design Guidance: https://www.sportengland.org/how-we-can-help/facilities guidance/active-design

Planning conditions

We maintain a list of model planning conditions covering issues such as - creation of new playing notes, sports lighting and community use.

Community Use Agreements (CUA)

Central Government wishes to see the availability of sports facilities to the wider community when user, as they see schools being at the heart of local communities. To help with this ambition we h use agreement.

- Planning Conditions and Community Use Agreements: https://www.sportengland.org/guida planning/planning-sport/planning-applications

National Governing Bodies of Sport

Although Sport England is not in a position to provide a detailed response on this occasion, where advice provided by recognised sport National Governing Bodies (NGBs), a list of which is available

- NGBs: https://www.sportengland.org/guidance-and-support/national-governing-bodies?sect

Please note: this response relates to Sport England's planning function only. It is not as any grant application/award that may relate to the site.

Yours sincerely,

Planning Technical Team

E: planning.south@sportengland.org