Hi Robert

I can confirm we propose to use the internal garage floor slab without alteration.

Hi Roger

Can you confirm the following please with regards to the Arboricultural comment I have received.

However, this no-objection recommendation is subject to there being no removal, excavation or alteration of the existing internal garage floor slab. Any lowering of levels, removal of the slab, installation of new foundations, or other groundworks within the footprint could have implications for tree roots and would require further arboricultural assessment.

Kind regards Rob
