

I refer to the above matter and have also read the letter Rowlands Castle Parish Council have sent you. Having read it I think there are valid points raised which I agree with.

It is my view that the application before the Council should be rejected as it stands.

It seems to me that who ever put together the plans had no regard for what was originally agreed. Is this another attempt by Portsmouth Water to push through what they want?