

I totally agree with rowlands castle parish objections. This is a reservoir which is supposed to be as natural as it can I really think that it is not good idea to have evening activities/functions. Also people need peace and quiet in evenings not people accessing the area with their radios n car lights on!

Regards

