

Hi,

I have following objections

The re positioning of visitors centre on a floating pontoon -will create disturbance over the wetland.

It doesn't seem to be taking into consideration that when the water level is low the building will be sitting on mud Additionally there now seem to be plans to use the centre after dark which will create light pollution across the wetland.

There are no barriers to prevent dogs (and people) venturing onto the wetlands.

Thanks

